Actionable

Subject + Have/Get + Something + Done

DIRECTIONS: Write a sentence for each action indicated, using the causative structure. Begin each sentence with, “I am.”

EXAMPLE: writing a novel
I am having a novel written.

1. grooming the dog

__________________________________________________________________

2. mowing the grass

__________________________________________________________________

3. driving the car

__________________________________________________________________

4. preparing a meal

__________________________________________________________________

5. watching an employee

__________________________________________________________________

6. writing a speech

__________________________________________________________________