Pancakes and Soccer

It was a great morning Max and Camilla woke up and Dad made them pancakes. Dad always made pancakes for breakfast on the weekends. Camilla had a big soccer game today. The kids ate their pancakes and they all got ready for the game.

Max loved to go to Camilla's soccer games because he always got a slushy from the snack bar. Max helped out at the snack bar by giving out snack samples to the crowd. The owners of the snack really liked Max's help. The more samples that Max gave to the crowd, the more food that the snack bar sold.
