Vacation Time

Read the story to answer the questions below. Try to think about what will happen next.

Every year on the first day of Thanksgiving break from school, we load the car to go on vacation. We have to pack warm clothes for the trip since we go to Grandma's house where it is cold. We always pack sweaters and gloves because there will be snow to play in when we get there. Most years we have enough snow to go skiing and to build a snowman. When we finish packing, Mom puts all the suitcases in the car. I sit in the back with my little sister. My sister is still small and has to ride in her car seat. I hope our snowman gets to wear a blue scarf this year.
