The Purple Cat

Directions: Read the following passage or listen to your teacher read the passage below. Can you determine what in the text supported the idea of making the cat's fur purple?

Cassie put a purple coat on Millie the cat. Millie looked so cute in the purple coat. This gave Cassie an idea and something special to do for the fashion show next week.

She went to tell her mother all about her idea. At first, her mother thought it was a bad idea, but Cassie was so excited about it. Then Cassie's dad came home and heard about the purple cat idea. They all decided that it could work if they used paint that could wash off. Also, they had to use paint that would not hurt Millie the cat.

The next day, Millie had bright purple fur and looked so great in it!

What are the reasons the author gives for making the cat's fur purple?
