

Name _____

Date _____

Nature Question and Answer

In the spring the flowers start to bloom and the trees start to bud. I like watching them come back to life. The sun comes out more and the temperatures are warmer. Spring is my favorite season of the year. I like playing outside and seeing nature come back to life after the cold winter.

In the passage above, what season do the flowers bloom in?

Circle the sentence that proves that you are right.

In the passage above, what season is the author's favorite?

Circle the sentence that proves you are right.

In the passage above, what does nature do in the spring?

Circle the sentence that proves you are right.