Assonance Exercise

Assonance is the repetition of vowel sounds close together, between different consonants, usually in a line of poetry. Sometimes assonance is also called a “vowel rhyme.”

DIRECTIONS: Read the first word. Create assonance by circling the appropriate word from each line.

EXAMPLE:

1. pipe  ice  Kid  fight  lose
2. gift  kid  ice  fight  lose
3. chuckle  grave  supper  battle  salad
4. glaze  upset  wheel  bake  road
5. peak  stare  squeal  coat  bag
6. dead  door  yellow  eat  ready
7. slope  balloon  bar  boat  pit
8. again  send  yeast  rubber  glass
9. bought  phone  not  ugly  clear
10. mind  tip  winter  peanut  hype
11. flat  iceburg  Saturday  ship  force

CCSS.L.7.4 © http://www.EnglishWorksheetsLand.com