

Name _____ Respect

R-E-S-P-E-C-T

Respect means treating others with honor and dignity. Treating people with respect is an important part of maintaining relationships.

DIRECTIONS: Read each scenario below. Then write down how you would respond to the scenario, demonstrating the character quality of respect.

1. Your mother works two jobs to support you and your siblings on her own. She asks you to take on a few extra chores around the house.

What do you do? _____

2. You agree to go to the park on Saturday with your best friend. Then a boy you have a crush on asks you on a date for Saturday afternoon.

What do you do? _____

3. There is a new student in your class. English is not her first language.

What do you do? _____

