

Name _____ Respect

What is Respect?

DIRECTIONS: Match each scenario below with an answer that makes sense. Write the letter of the answer on the line beneath the scenario.

- A. Not respectful. We may not always agree with someone, but we should still talk calmly and rationally about the issue.
- B. Not respectful. You are not considering the respect due to an individual because of their position of authority, or the fact that you may be disturbing others around you.
- C. Not respectful. You are not considering the needs of others who are trying to work quietly.
- D. Not respectful. You should always consider other people's feeling before sharing your opinion. Some things are best kept to yourself.
- E. Respectful. You are trying to solve a problem in a way that will not hurt anyone's feelings.

1. A classmate is having trouble with math. His struggle is holding the whole class back. You are very good at math. At lunch time you ask him if he would like for you to tutor him.

2. Your teacher is late getting to class. When she finally comes in, you ignore her, and continue the loud conversation you are having with someone on the other side of the room.

3. You are in a library and you can't find the book you are looking for. You yell really loudly, "Can somebody please help me!"

4. Your best friend gives you a book for your birthday. You start reading it, but really don't like it. You give it back to her, and tell her that it was a lousy gift.

5. Your parents won't allow you to go to an R-rated movie, so you scream that you hate them, and slam your bedroom door.
