

Adverbs that Tell How Often

Adverbs can give us more information about a verb by telling us how often something happens. The adverbs below tell frequency:

Always 100%

Often 60%

Rarely 5%

Almost always 95%

Sometimes 50%

Almost never 1–5%

Usually 75%

Occasionally 30%

Never 0%

Frequently 8-0%

Seldom 5%

DIRECTIONS: Complete each sentence with an adverb that makes sense.

1. My best friend _____ comes over. He is super busy.
2. Mark _____ sleeps in on the weekends. Don't call before noon!
3. Kim _____ watches movies on the weekends. It's her only chance.
4. I _____ go to bed at 9 p.m. I have to get enough sleep.
5. I _____ have a snack after school. School makes me hungry.
6. Jerry _____ shows up on time; it's very annoying.
7. Ms. Harper _____ has time for me anymore.
8. George _____ avoids these awkward situations.
9. We are _____ asked to chaperone field trips. We always do.
10. My neighbors _____ want to borrow my tools. I hate it.
11. I _____ eat chocolate. I don't like it.
12. Daryl _____ brings a sandwich. You can bet money on it.