Create an Allegory

For this assignment, you will write a short allegory. To begin, choose one of the morals below.

- Appearances can be deceiving.
- You can’t please everybody.
- One good turn deserves another
- United we stand, divided we fall
- Misfortune tests the sincerity of friends

Next, choose two animals to be the characters in your allegory. Write down what each of your animal symbolizes or represents.

Animal #1, ___________________________, symbolizes ___________________________.

Animal #2, ___________________________, symbolizes ___________________________.

Now write your allegory. Your story should illustrate the moral you chose.

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________