

Where Is It?

A concrete noun is a person, place or thing that can be perceived by the senses. You know that a noun is concrete if you can see, hear, feel, touch, smell or taste the thing it stands for.

DIRECTIONS: Circle the concrete noun in each sentence.

1. She surveyed the table with anticipation.
2. It was cold, so they were wearing coats.
3. With hesitation, John tasted the pizza.
4. The fire alarm filled him with anxiety.
5. She was wearing a purple sweater that made her look glamorous.
6. While travelling, he was plagued both by exhaustion and by wolves.
7. The thought of the cat he lost fills him with regret.
8. Our experience at that restaurant was a disappointment.
9. I wish you would share your thoughts with me as easily as you share your chips.
10. The president was elected by an overwhelming majority.
11. If that movie doesn't give us pleasure I don't know what will.
12. I will use my phone to get an idea of where we are.
13. Jane always experiences claustrophobia when she is in an elevator.