

Name _____

Using Demonstrative Pronouns

Demonstrative pronouns point to specific items or things and examples of these pronouns include: those, this, these, that

Directions: Use the demonstrative pronouns mentioned above to complete the sentences below. In some cases, more than one demonstrative pronoun may fit.

1. The clown said _____ are the best balloons in town.

2. Do you like _____?

3. _____ are smaller than _____.

4. Did you see _____ near the dancing tiger?

5. _____ are happy days in Paris.

6. _____ were sad days.

7. _____ smells really nice.

8. _____ tastes really bad.

9. _____ is lighter than _____.

10. _____ are bigger than the box on the shelf.

11. Have you got _____ in your basket for the turtle?

12. David had _____ in his car when he picked up Benjamin.

