

Name _____

Using Demonstrative Adjectives

Demonstrative adjectives are used to modify nouns or pronouns and examples of these adjectives include: those, this

These demonstrative adjectives can also be demonstrative pronouns, depending on how the words are used.

Directions: Use the demonstrative adjectives (those or this) to complete the sentences below.

1. _____ girls have the best seats in the hall.
2. I will take _____ train to the market on 6th Avenue.
3. Painters and the paintings began to arrive at _____ venue yesterday.
4. _____ is the beginning of the page and _____ books are mine.
5. Happy cats love _____ balls of thread.
6. The parrot took _____ pen from my room.
7. _____ chickens are very hungry.
8. A heap of snow came down _____ streets.
9. The snowman was the first item _____ child created.
10. Santa took a big chunk out of _____ cake and smiled as he ate.
11. The car was part of _____ cars wrecked by the storm.
12. The closet in _____ house is the largest one I have seen.

