Character Sketch

Look at book. It could be one in your desk, or from the class library. Pick a book with a "colorful character." That means a character who is easy to describe. Think about your character's personality, is he or she, kind, funny, mean, scary? How does he or she dress? Does the place your character live help to form his or her attitude? What other words describe this person?

Title of the book you have chosen:
