A homonym is a word with one sound but more than one meaning. Use the following homonyms to form 2 sentences for each homonym. In these 2 sentences, the homonym must represent a different meaning of the word.

light  mean  race  sole

1. ____________________________________________________________

2. ____________________________________________________________

3. ____________________________________________________________

4. ____________________________________________________________

5. ____________________________________________________________

6. ____________________________________________________________

7. ____________________________________________________________

8. ____________________________________________________________