Commas and Dependent Clauses

Underline the dependent clauses and add commas where they are needed.

1. When we go on vacation we will visit my grandpa.
2. Before he retired he lived in California.
3. He bought an old farm and moved to Vermont.
4. Even though he isn't a farmer he loves the farm life.
5. We will stay for the whole summer unless the weather gets bad.
6. If there are too many storms my mom will want to go home.
7. It is special for me because he has a cow.
8. Once he let me milk it as the horses watched me.
9. Since I'm only seven they didn't let me do it alone.
10. I hope we can stay the whole summer.