

Belongs To Me?

Name: _____

Possessive pronouns are used to describe something that belongs to another person or thing.

Examples:

That is her purse. (The purse belongs to her).

He likes to play with his baseball. (The baseball belong to him).

her our their his its

The Musical

Directions: Using the possessive pronouns in the box above, fill in the missing pronoun. Next, rewrite the sentences using the correct pronoun.

1) We are ready for _____ performance

2) The teacher wanted all the students to remember _____ parts.

3) When it was time for Tom to sing _____ song, he took a deep breath.

4) Next, it was Laura's turn to play _____ flute.

5) _____ class also did some poetry about the seasons.

6) My teacher made sure everyone had a copy of _____ poems to read aloud.

7) Some people remembered _____ poem and did not need to read the paper.

8) It was time for the other class to do _____ performance.

9) _____ teacher lead them into a dance about the weather.

10) Each costume had _____ own meaning.
