

Name: _____

Possessive pronouns are used to describe something that belongs to another person or thing.

Examples:

That is her purse. (The purse belongs to her).

He likes to play with his baseball. (The baseball belong to him).

her our their his its

Directions: Using the possessive pronouns in the box above, fill in the missing pronoun. Next, rewrite the sentences using the correct pronoun.

The Museum

- 1) Sarah and _____ class took a field trip to Washington D.C.

- 2) While visiting Washington D.C., they went to see some of _____ most interesting museums.

- 3) Everyone had to keep up with _____ partner to make sure the class stayed together.

- 4) Gregory used _____ camera to take pictures of the all the interesting artifacts.

- 5) At noon, it was time for everyone to eat _____ lunch.

- 6) After lunch, Lucy looked over _____ notes about the museum.

- 7) We realized _____ field trip was almost over.

- 8) _____ class enjoys field trips and learning about the country's history.

- 9) On _____ way back, we stopped for some ice cream.

- 10) Alex had already spent all of _____ money, so he borrowed some from Jason.
