Oceans Mad Libs

Last year, at the beach, I decided to see how far I could swim. I ______ (an action) into the sea, wearing just my ______ (a color) ______ (an item of clothing). The sea was very ______ (a temperature), but I didn't mind.

I started swimming. I did the ______ (an animal) stroke, and was travelling at ______ (a number) miles per hour!

I had been swimming for almost ______ (a number) miles, when I saw a ______ (a color) ______ (a sea creature) swimming towards me!

I wasn't scared, and when it got closer, it said “_______ (a greeting), would you like a lift?”

Of course I said yes, and I got on it's back, held on to it's ______ (a part of the creatures body), and we started swimming!

We passed a ______ (a kind of food) shaped island, and a ______ (a color) boat. The weather was ______ (choose the weather) - perfect for a swim with a ______ (the sea creature you chose)!

After what felt like ______ (a number) minutes, the ______ (the sea creature you chose) arrived at the destination - it had taken me to ______ (a country of your choice)!

But all that swimming had made me tired, so I caught a ______ (a vehicle) back home...
