American Revolution Mad Libs Activity

Last night I dreamed that I was in the 18th century, around the time of the American Revolution. I didn't recognize myself when I looked in the mirror!

" _____ (an old fashioned word)!" I exclaimed in surprise. I had long white curly hair that looked like a _____ (a white animal) was sitting on my head.
I wore a long red coat, and was surprised to find a _____ (a fruit) in my pocket!

I turned around, and saw that _____ (your friend) and my _____ (a family member) were also with me.

" _____ (an old phrase)" I said to _____ (your friend), who replied by saying " _____ (a game) is about to start outside! Will you be playing?"
I agreed, and we _____ (a way of moving) outside to play _____ (the game you chose).

After around _____ (a number) minutes, the sky began to turn _____ (a color) and it started raining _____ (your favorite soda), so we all picked up a _____ (a container) and caught it!

We went back inside, where there was a _____ (a size) old table, and everyone sang _____ (a nursery rhyme) while we drank _____ (the soda it was raining).
