Splitting Sentences!

Directions: Chop up those sentences! Draw a line between the subject and the predicate.

1. Brandon the lumberjack eats five pancakes for breakfast.
2. Brandon chops down ten trees per day.
3. He uses both an axe and a chainsaw depending on the type of tree.
4. Every time a tree is falling, he yells, “Timber!”
5. His favorite trees are maple, birch and pine trees.
6. After he chops one down, he sends it to the factory.
7. The trees he cuts down are made into paper products.
8. Paper, toilet paper and paper towel are made from the trees Brandon chops down.
9. Every year, Brandon plants a new tree for every tree he chops down.
10. Brandon encourages everyone to recycle.