Can You Name the Type of Conflict?

DIRECTIONS: Read the brief summary of each Disney movie below. Can you identify the basic conflict in each movie? Explain your answer.

1. The Incredibles

After losing a law suit for saving a man’s job, Mr. Incredible is forbidden to work as a superhero anymore. For his family’s well-being he tries to be a “normal” person, but he wants a different kind of life and he is desperately unhappy. He starts working a second job at night, in secret, being a superhero again with his best friend.

Type of Conflict: __________________________________________________

Explain:________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________

2. The Lion King

Simba’s uncle, Scar, uses Simba to plot against and kill Simba’s father, then makes Simba think that his father’s death is his own fault. Frightened and ashamed, Simba runs away. When he grows up and learns how bad conditions have become at home, under Scar’s rule, he returns to Pride Rock to confront scar and reclaim his rightful place as king.

Type of Conflict: __________________________________________________

Explain:________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________

3. The Jungle Book

Mowgli is abandoned in the jungle as an infant and raised by wolves. Most of the jungle animals like and help take care of him, but some feel like he doesn’t belong. As he grows up, Mowgli becomes the target of Shera Kahn, the tiger, who hates man. Mowgli has to defend himself against Shera Kahn using man’s ultimate weapon, fire. Ultimately, Mowgli’s friends urge him to return to the man village, where he belongs.

Type of Conflict: __________________________________________________

Explain:________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________