

Name _____

To Infinitives...and Beyond as Adjectives

An infinitive is a verb following the word 'to'. An infinitive can be used as an adjective, a noun or an adverb.

If the infinitive is an adjective, it answers how many, which one, or what kind.

INSTRUCTIONS: Underline the infinitive in each of the following sentences.

1. My name is Ralph, and I am pleased to meet you.
2. Janie and I are ready to go.
3. Jake was sad to hear about the accident.
4. Our teacher is afraid to touch my pet snake.
5. Gina is not ready to take the math test.
6. The soldiers were happy to hear they were going home.
7. After the motorcycle accident, Kevin was lucky to be alive.
8. Simon was excited to run for class president.
9. Learning to drive made Lucy nervous.
10. Michelle was surprised to see she got an A in history.
11. Nicole is glad to help her Grandma clean her house.
12. When Ted got home from school, he was too tired to clean his room.
13. Susan and Elizabeth were ready to leave before the rest of the girls were.
14. I am happy to say you are my friend.
15. Mom said Jennifer would be the one to wash the dishes.

