

Name _____

Date _____

Linking or not?

Directions: Circle the letter of the sentence that uses the verb as a linking verb.

A. Henry proved to Janice that he couldn't do a handstand.

B. The defendant proved guilty in court last week.

A. The day grew hot.

B. The plant grew one inch overnight.

A. John appeared happy after he was promoted.

B. That rabbit appeared out of the magician's hat!

A. I can smell those flowers from over here.

B. The whole bakery smells delicious after the bakers make cakes every morning.

A. Keith's good day turned into a bad one when he fell down at recess.

B. The girl's face turned red when she got stage fright.

