Directions: Underline and number all the future tense verbs in the paragraph below. Then, write what form the future tense verb is in (simple, perfect, progressive, perfect progressive) on the corresponding lines.

Dear Eliot,

We are camping at a national park. On Wednesday, we will have been camping here for a week. So far today, we have fished for our supper, roasted marshmallows and sat around the campfire and told stories.

Tomorrow, we will be hiking in the mountains. This time tomorrow night, we will be enjoying a delicious grilled steak dinner. It's too bad that you couldn't be here with us. We will definitely plan another trip, so you can come with. How is everyone else at home? I imagine that, by the time we get back, everyone will have missed us, and the day we get home, you and I will order a pizza!

Sincerely,

Frankie
